And whereas

His Majesty by his royal sign manual bearing date at his Court at Saint James the sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and nine years ago granted and authority given to him in this behalf in a Royal Charter, a. s. 3. Statute made and passed in the twenty-eighth year of his reign intituled "An act to continue several laws relating to the granting a bounty on the exportation of certain species of British and Irish Linen reported and taken up to assist in the importation of foreign and linen yarn made of flax and to the preventing the committing of frauds by Bankrupts and for continuing and amending several laws relating to the imprisonment and transportation of offenders" has been pleased to give order for the transportation of all the several before named offenders and has graciously thought fit to authorize and empower the above named Thomas Stinton to make a contract or contracts with any his person or persons for the effectual transportation of the said offenders and to take security from the person or persons so contracting for the effectual transportation of them respectively pursuant to the sentences and orders aforesaid concerning them respectively.

And whereas the said Thomas Stinton by virtue of such power and authority and in consideration of the contract and agreement of the said William Consten, Anthony Colverly, and Thomas King his factors mentioned and of the security to be given by them the said William Consten, Anthony Colverly, and Thomas King by bond or writing obligatory for the effectual performance thereof hath agreed to and with the said
